

MR POPHistory

Week of June 1, 1955

Yugoslavia signs a declaration of principles with the Soviet Union, but President Tito didn't yield an inch on his independence. Tito did join Russia in backing up Red China's claim to Formosa.

The Supreme Court hands to local officials and to local Federal courts the historic and delicate talks of ending all racial segregation in public schools "as soon as practicable."

Georgia Atty. Gen. Eugene Cook, asserting that the tribunal "neither gave a formula for integration nor established machinery for enforcement" joins Gov. Marvin Griffin in open defiance of the U.S. Supreme Court school segregation ruling.

The U.S. Public Health service clears 200,000 c.c.s of Salk polio vaccine for use in the nationwide immunization campaign.

President Eisenhower predicts that all first and second grade children will have Salk vaccine inoculations in 60 days.

Dies in gas chamber – Barbara Graham, sentenced to death with Jack Santo and Emmett Perkins for murder, dies in the San Quentin gas chamber. The other two died two hours later for their part in a 1953 murder.

Some Ford employees are striking as negotiations continue. Walkouts or picketing were reported at Ford plants in Cleveland, Buffalo, Chicago and Cincinnati and Livonia in suburban Detroit as a midnight strike deadline passed with negotiators still trying to avert a general strike. Later, The CIO says it has settled with Ford, with workers getting a guaranteed wage plan. The plan calls for the company to establish a $55 million fund during a three-year contract period to finance payments to workers idled from their jobs, supplementing state unemployment compensation benefits.

Sports – Dodgers on a roll, beating Milwaukee 13-2. Duke Snider hit another homer – his 16th for the year.

Entertainment news – Marilyn Monroe and Joe DiMaggio, although separated – attend the premiere of her "Seven Year Itch" in New York at Lowe's State.

MR POPHistory

Week of June 1, 1955

OPENING TOMORROW, Mon.

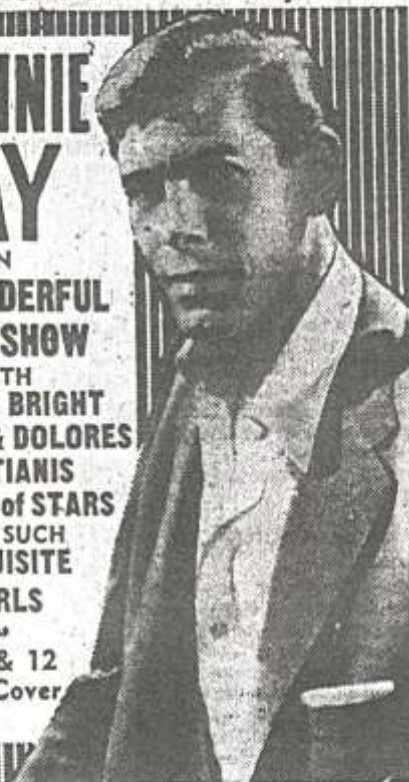

JOHNNIE RAY

IN
A WONDERFUL
NEW SHOW

WITH
JACKIE BRIGHT
HOLGER & DOLORES
CRISTIANIS
DOZENS of STARS
AND SUCH EXQUISITE
GIRLS

Shows 8 & 12
Never a Cover
Charge

Lou Walters' LATIN QUARTER B'way at 48th St.
CI 6-1737

MR POPHistory

Week of June 1, 1955

Television news –

CBS is dropping “The Morning Show” after July 1 Jack Paar, star of the show will appear in a new CBS-TV offering beginning July 4 afternoons.

NBC will televise “Howdy Doody” in color on a full-time basis beginning in the fall.

Friday night television –

CBS – Douglas Edwards news, Perry Como, Mama, Topper, Playhouse of Stars, Our Miss Brooks, The line-Up. Person to Person

NBC – Eddie Fisher, News Caravan w/John Cameron Swayze, Jack Carson Show, Life of Riley, The Big Story, Dear Phoebe, Boxing, Tonight

ABC – John Daly news, Rin Tin Tin, Ozzie and Harriet, Ray Bolger Show, Dollar a Second, The Vise, Mr. District Attorney

Life of Riley – A secret project at the airplane plant causes trouble at the Riley home.

Our Miss Brooks – Our star buys a car and the first thing – gets into a traffic jam. Stars Eve Arden.

Person to Person – Edward R. Murrow visits W.C. Handy and Otis Skinner.

Tonight – Eydie Gorme, Steve Lawrence, Andy Williams.

MR POPHistory

Week of June 1, 1955

TONIGHT THE RACE
STARTS FOR THE
BIGGEST JACKPOT
IN TELEVISION—

THE $64,000 QUESTION

Watch the first group of entries in the most exciting sweepstakes on the air. Led by Hal March, master of ceremonies, each contestant will attempt to give the correct answers to 17 questions entitling him to a chance at tonight's top prize of $8,000 and the right to return next week for $18,000; the week after for $32,000; and the fourth week for the grand prize of $64,000.

CBS TELEVISION PREMIERE 10 PM TONIGHT ON CHANNEL 2

MR POPHistory

Week of June 1, 1955

This new radio program features Percy Faith and his Orchestra

MR POPHistory

Week of June 1, 1955

At the movies –

Not As A Stranger – Olivia de Havilland, Robert Mitchum, Frank Sinatra, Gloria Grahame, Broderick Crawford, Charles Bickford

The Informer – Victor McLaglen

Walt Disney's Davy Crockett – Fess Parker, Buddy Ebsen

Soldier of Fortune – Clark Gable, Susan Hayward

Love Me Or Leave Me – Doris Day, James Cagney

Strange Lady In Town – Greer Garson, Dana Andrews

The Eternal Sea – Sterling Hayden, Alexis Smith, Dean Jagger

The Bed – Richard Todd, Dawn Addams

Mambo – Silvana Mancano

The Purple Plain – Gregory Peck

Escape To Burma – Barbara Stanwyck, Robert Ryan

