Using numerous charts and a long pointer, Ross Perot told viewers on his NBC-TV infomercial that the deficit must be eliminated to restore the country to economic health. He spelled-out a plan to cut spending, raise levies on gasoline, tobacco and other income to eliminate the deficit.

President Bush, Governor Bill Clinton and Ross Perot take-on debate #3 on national television.

President Bush and Arkansas Gov Bill Clinton Clashed repeatedly on economic issues in the final debate. Ross Perot charged President Bush's foreign policy built-up regimes of Hussein in Iraq and Noriega in Panama. Some remarks... From President Bush: "Mr. and Mrs. American, when you hear Gov Clinton say, "we are going to tax only the rich," watch your wallet, because his figures don't add up."... From Bill Clinton - "I can't believe he is accusing me of getting on both sides. He said trickle-down economics was 'voodoo economics' and now he's its biggest practitioner." ... From Ross Perot - "I put my wallet on the table for you and your children."

Diplomatic war - The Soviet Union retaliates for Washington's expulsion of 55 Soviet diplomats by expelling another five diplomats and withdrawing all 260 Soviet employees from the U.S. embassy in Moscow and consulate in Leningrad. Soviet leader Mikhail S. Gorbachev broadcasting on Soviet television said, "We aren't going to allow 55 of our diplomats to be eliminated just like that. They (U.S. officials) have taken action in recent days which to the normal human mind appear simply wild after such an important meeting on the level of the highest leadership of the two countries. Every time when there seems to be a little bit of light, there is a provocation which is aimed at trying to cut off any real kind a conclusion."

At a star-studded pay-TV concert saluting Bob Dylan, Singer Sinead O'Connor is booed off the stage, repercussions after she tore up a photo of the Pope during an appearance on "Saturday Night Live" on October 3rd. During the concert, more than two dozen musicians sang 30 Dylan songs, most of them taken from his 60's catalogue. Appearing - John Mellencamp, Stevie Wonder, Pearl Jam's Eddie Vedder, Tracy Chapman, Lou Reed, Johnny Cash and June Carter, Chrissie Hynde, Eric Clapton, George Harrison, Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers and Roger McGuinn.

Howard Stern announces that he'll be doing a TV show for the E! Channel. Stern recently did a show on WWOR-TV (New York). The station said it canceled the show, but Stern said he quit.

Comedian Sam Kinison is censored by NBC (on the west coast) after an appearance on "Saturday Night Live" this week. Broadcast live on the east coast, Kinison was talking about the government's war on drugs - One of the edits came after the comedian said - "They've taken the pot, there is no more pot. You can't get any more pot. If you give us back the pot. we'll forget about the crack."

According to producer Lorne Michaels, Kinison did not perform at the program's Saturday evening dress rehearsal. The other edit had to do with a joke about the Crucifixion. SNL has no time delay on the east coast.

Singer Madonna has some words to say about Irish singer Sinead O'Connor for ripping up a picture of the Pope John Paul II on "Saturday Night Live." Said Madonna - I think there is a better way to present her ideas rather than ripping up an image that means a lot to other people. While I may agree with her theory, I cannot agree with her approach."
