

MR POPHistory

Week of September 1, 2005

New Orleans – Snipers fire on rescue efforts as federal troops mobilize in the area. The city's police and emergency officials are working to prevent complete social disintegration as widespread looting continues and floodwaters hide a number of dead.

Search teams press on to evacuate those still in New Orleans, but hundreds still will not leave.

Making progress in New Orleans as pumps and newly repaired levees are helping lower to lower the water level.

Many New Orleans refugees are showing up in Baton Rouge especially those with relatives living there.

Unidentified gunmen in the Gaza Strip shoot and kill Moussa Arafat, former Palestinian Authority security chief and cousin of the late Yasser Arafat at his home in Gaza City.

NBC airs a benefit for hurricane victims. Rapper Kanye West said, "George Bush doesn't care about black people" and although heard on the East Coast, was cut on delayed feeds.

Bird flu has killed another in Vietnam, bringing the regional death toll to 62 since 2003.

Technology – Google Inc says it has recently begun placing ads in two computing magazines on behalf of small companies.

Sports – New Jersey Devils defenseman Scott Stevens announces his retirement after more than two decades in the NHL.

MR POPHistory

Week of September 1, 2005

Trends – On-line card playing among males ages 14 to 22 has increased from 6.2% in 2003 to 11.4% last year. Particularly poker.

Television news –

“Supernatural” – a new WB series will debut on line first! Catch the first episode on Yahoo. The series debuts on the WB September 13.

New talk shows on television – Tyra Banks, Tony Danza and Martha Stewart will have a new daytime show.

Passing – Bob Denver (70) – Best-known as “Gilligan” in Gilligan’s Island and as Maynard G. Krebs in Dobie Gillis.

Friday night television –

CBS – 60 Minutes II, The Cut, Numbers, Late Show

NBC – Concert for Hurricane Relief, Dateline NBC, Crossing Jordan, Tonight

Show

ABC – Supernanny, Hope & Faith, Less Than Perfect, 20/20, Nightline

FOX – Bernie Mac, Bernie Mac, Arrested Development, arrested Development

WB – What I Like About You Blue Collar TV, Reba, Living With Fran

UPN – Movie

PBS – Washington Week, Roadtrip Nation, Tavis Smiley, Charlie Rose

Disney – That’s So Raven, Movie-Snow Dogs

MTV – DFX, MTV’s 70’s House, My Super Sweet, Wild & Out

A Concert For Hurricane Relief – With Tim McGraw, Harry Conick Jr., Leonardo DeCaprio and Wynton Marsalis and others.

What I Like About You – Holly doesn’t know why she can’t commit.

MR POPHistory

Week of September 1, 2005

Crossing Jordan – An airborne virus kills a passenger and a baggage handler at an airport.

Late Show/David Letterman – Stephen Colbert guests.

Tonight Show – Kate Hudson joins Jay Leno.

Radio news –

Syndicated talk show host Rush Limbaugh will perform a one-man show to benefit Hurricane Katrina victims. Tickets cost $77 and he'll appear at the New Amsterdam Theatre on Broadway Oct. 18.

Top movies –

Transporter 2
The 40 Year-Old Virgin
The Constant Gardener
Red Eye

The Brothers Grimm
Four Brothers
Wedding Crashers
March of the Penguins
The Skeleton Key
The Cave

MR POPHistory

Week of September 1, 2005

OWEN WILSON VINCE VAUGHN

WEDDING CRASHERS

WITH CHRISTOPHER WALKEN

LIFE'S A PARTY. CRASH IT.

NEW LINE CINEMA PRESENTS A TAPESTRY FILMS PRODUCTION A DAVID DOEKIN FILM OWEN WILSON VINCE VAUGHN "WEDDING CRASHERS" WITH CHRISTOPHER WALKEN RACHEL McADAMS ISLA FISHER AND JANE SEYMOUR CASTING BY LISA BEACH, C.S.A. MUSIC BY ROLFE KENT EDITOR DENISE WINGATE COSTUME DESIGNER MARK LIVOLSI PRODUCTION DESIGNER BARRY ROBERSON DIRECTOR OF PHOTOGRAPHY JULIO MACAZ, ASC EXECUTIVE PRODUCERS GUY HIEDEL TOBY EMMERICH RICHARD BRENER CALE BOYTER PRODUCED BY PETER ABRAMS ROBERT L. LEVY ANDREW PANAY WRITTEN BY STEVE FABER & BOB FISHER DIRECTED BY DAVID DOEKIN

R RESTRICTED
Under 17 requires accompaniment
Some material may be offensive to parents and young viewers
MPAA Rating System
SEXUAL CONTENT/NUDITY
AND LANGUAGE

WWW.WEDDINGCRASHERSMOVIE.COM

THIS SUMMER

NEW LINE CINEMA